

A "Smelly" Problem

From her window, a lady was surprised to see

A smelly skunk, his head stuck in a carton... tightly!
She quickly made phone calls; found no help anywhere.

Watching the bumbling creature, she was full of despair,
And she said to the Lord, "Now what shall I do?"

His answer: "The skunk's fate is all up to you."
So she hurried outside, afraid he was gone,

But he staggered from bushes, his "head trap" still on.
She grasped it quite firmly, he pulled his head free,
And with a look of "Thanks!", waddled off gratefully.

When God saw us stumbling blindly in darkness,

"Stuck tightly" in sin, He said, "Who will go for us,
To save these lost creatures, so helpless below?"

And His Son, the Lord Jesus, replied, "I will go."
And so He left heaven to come down where we are,

And His place of arrival was marked by "His star".
God who loved us, though we were all "reeking" in sin,
Gave His Son to remove the "sin trap" we were in!

"Even so we... were in bondage..."

"But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth
His Son... To redeem... Galatians 4: 3, 4, 5

"God commendeth His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Roman 5: 8

"There fore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through
our Lord Jesus Christ... and rejoice."

Roman 5: 1, 2

The trapped skunk was glad to be set free,
And this can be true for you and me!
