

An Ugly Bird

"There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen."

Job 28:7

ELB

Vultures are repulsive birds

That soar gracefully on high,
With great wings spread, their keen eyes seek

Things dead, or soon to die.

They mostly feed on carrion,
But have been known to grasp
A helpless, perhaps straying lamb,
Right from its earthly path!

And does not Satan hover near

With eyes that seek our death,
Pursuing us relentlessly
Until our final breath?

But God has paths for us to walk
That vulture eyes can't know
Where God's hand safely keeps us
As we travel here below!
