

The little ant was busy,

As ants are prone to be,
When suddenly he stepped into
A hole he failed to see.

He struggled to climb out of it,
But in the dust below,
An ant lion waited
To eat him up, and so...

The 'lion' kicked the dirt out fast
To make the ant slide down,
But with a mighty effort,

That ant reached solid ground!
Satan tries to set his traps
Where we are unaware,
But with God's Word to light our path,
We can avoid his snares!

The 'doodle bug' looks harmless
To the human eye,
But his jaws are a real danger
To insects passing by!

"Ponder the path of thy feet,
and let all thy ways be established."

Proverbs 4:26
