

The Spider And The Beetle

A little spider spun her web
From wall to sidewalk where
A bumbling beetle came along
And caught one foot in there.
His five other feet kept slipping
As he struggled to work free,
But little spider wrapped him in More silken threads, and he Could not escape her clever trap
She placed right in his way,
So tiny spider had a tasty
"Beetle feast" that day!
And that's the way it is with sin.
Its web does not seem strong,
But it weaves itself around you
As you try to move along!
you become sin's helpless victim,
And can never struggle free.
Only Christ the sinner's Saviour
Can give you liberty!

"Whosoever
commiteth sin is the servant of sin."

John 8:34

"This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." I Timothy 1:15
"If the Son (of God) therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." John 8:36
