

Alas, Eve had taken of the Forbidden Fruit, having yielded to the temptation of the serpent (Satan), and had given some to Adam and he too had eaten of it.

The moment they had done so their "eyes were opened and they knew that they were naked." verse 7. of chapter 3.

They became aware of their sin and guilt before God. Gone was their dignity, their happiness, their innocence, their purity and their peace. Instead they felt shame, guilt and fear.

Their first instinct was to cover themselves. They knew they were no longer fit for God's presence.

And they sewed fig leaves together,
and made themselves aprons.
