

They gathered fig leaves and sewed them together, no doubt in desperate feverish haste, to make aprons with which to cover themselves, in an effort to be fit to meet God.

But when they heard His voice they hid themselves. The fig leaves did not remove the shame and guilt they felt, nor the sin that they had committed.

So

Man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Jehovah Elohim, in the midst of the trees of the garden

Gen 3 v 8

God in mercy called to Adam

"Where art thou?"

Did God not know where they were? Who can hide from an "all seeing," "all knowing" God?
