

And Jehovah Elohim made Adam and his wife coats of skin, and clothed them.

Genesis 3 v 21

God Himself made suitable coverings for them. Only He could do so. These coats were made of skin. Obviously an animal had to die to provide the skin. Not only did He make the coats but He "clothed them."

What a picture this is of the work of the Lord Jesus, the Son of God, who gave His life that the sinner, upon true confession of sin and belief in Him, might receive the garment of salvation, can be made righteous in Christ.

The inadequate aprons of fig leaves, (that is, our own attempts to be right before God to get to heaven by our own efforts) must be replaced by the salvation God has provided in His Son.
