

In pride and rebellion against God
Lucifer lifted up his heart.

He wanted to be as God. What audacity!
What wickedness!

He is no longer the 'Brilliant Star'
but rather the 'power of darkness.'

His objective is to oppose, to hinder,
to destroy God's purpose.

One of his names is Satan meaning adversary, and as such, he is the great enemy of God and man.

He was quick to begin his opposition to God, for, as we have seen from Genesis chapter three, he enters that beautiful
prestine scene where everything was perfect, and by his lie and deceit causes Eve to partake of the forbidden tree.

With a downright lie he contradicted
what God had said concerning the inevitable
