

Earlier we are told he was a thief. Satan used his greed for money to entice him into betraying the Lord Jesus—for thirty pieces of silver.

On the actual night of His betrayal we read these solemn words.

then entered Satan into him
John 13 v 27

Was God then defeated? Was His purpose thwarted? If so man would have been lost forever—With only an eternal hell to face.

In Gen 3 v 15 we read of another "seed". This "seed" is the seed of the woman. There would be perpetual enmity between the "seed" of the serpent and seed of the woman.

Ultimately the seed of the woman, though suffering himself, would be victorious over the seed of the serpent.

What does this mean? Who is this seed?
