

There has always been hatred, opposition, even the killing of many of God's Faithful children, by those who were like Cain "of the wicked one".

The great conflict took place on the cross when the Lord Jesus (the Seed of the woman) in apparant weakness defeated Satan.

He became a man like us, flesh and blood that through death He might annul him who has the might of death, that is the devil; and might set free all those who through fear of death through the whole of their life were subject to bondage.

Hebrews 2 v 14.

So Satan, or the devil, is a defeated foe. He still has great power. He still deceives. He still goes about seeking whom he might devour. He still tempts man. He still seeks to prevent
