A Bible Searching Exercise

Swift "steed of the desert," they name must be told (Gen.24:64) _____

Whose hair clothed a preacher, both faithful and bold (Mark 1:6) _____

Bird - type of sinner, by nature unclean,
The friend of corruption, you know what I mean (Gen. 8:7) _____

Majestic and powerful, the strength of thy wing
Like the way which the Lord His people did bring (Ex. 19:4) _____

A reptile so subtle so deadly its sting,
The horse and its rider to earth it can bring (Gen.49:17). _____

Pure, gentle and harmless, thy blood must be spilt
Ere the sinner can have a remission of guilt (Lev.14:22) _____

With head reared on high, and a beat of the wing,
The swiftest pursuers to scorn thou dost bring (Job 39:13-18) _____

So graceful thy form, so quick is thine ear,
Thou'rt off like the wind when danger is near (Chron.12:8). _____

Now then, dear young readers, with Bible in hand,
Set down the initials, and then understand
That the name thus evolved remembered should be
In the days of thy youth, ere its precious years flee. _____
